XX EDITION 2022-23

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON ARCHITECTURE AND MUSEOGRAPHY FOR ARCHEOLOGY

July 25, 2022 - August 26_29, 2022
on Microsoft Teams

On the occasion of the Twentieth Edition of the Piranesi Prix de Rome, the Adrianea Academy of Architecture and Archeology, in collaboration with the Polytechnic of Milan, the Polytechnic of Turin and the Order of Architects, Landscape Planners and Conservators of Rome and the Province, promotes and organizes an international conference on architecture and museography for archeology aimed to recognizing the results of the International Calls launched in 2016 and 2018 respectively for the redevelopment and enhancement of Via dei Fori Imperiali in Rome and for the redevelopment and enhancement of the Unesco Buffer Zone of Villa Adriana. A re-reading, after a few years, which allows us to observe the contents of the two scientific competitions from an adequate temporal perspective in comparison with two elements of significant importance: the launch of the new International Call for the redevelopment of the Acropolis of Athens and the restart of the political and administrative action related to the Central Archaeological Area in Rome and to Villa Adriana Unesco Buffer Zone with a completely innovative perspective.
